

O'CONNELL TO BE BENEDICT

Congressman Joseph F. O'Connell of the Irish Massachusetts Congressional district, is to be married next August to Miss Marietta R. Lenthall, daughter of Congressman John T. Lenthall, of Waltham, Pa.

The announcement that Congressman O'Connell was to become a benedict caused the surprise in his intimate friends, who had met Miss Lenthall upon her recent visit to Boston. The couple met in Washington when the girl's father was serving in Congress.

Miss Lenthall, who is widely known in Catholic educational circles throughout the country, is described as being a charming brunette. She is a graduate of Notre Dame, Philadelphia, where her mother was also educated.

MUSIC QUELLS A FIRE PANIC

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Lulled to an unconsciousness of their peril by music 2,500 persons danced early today in Times square, fifty-fifth street and Lexington avenue, while a fire blazed in the clock tower. It was the annual ball of the Wyandotte club, Charles Commissioner O'Connell's association. The fire was probably caused by a cigarette.

Mrs. Robert H. Hamilton, wife of a firm of English Company No. 22, saw flames licking up the workroom of a woman's dressing room back of the music gallery on the second floor. She sought her husband who was dancing and told him what she had seen. Hamilton ran to the room and began shouting fire. The assistance of several others who were nearby to put it out with extinguishers and buckets of water, and it became necessary to turn in the alarm in order that there should be no made the orchestra leave the room. The ball was kept on playing until it was dropped a few minutes later. The dance was over and the people kept on dancing. The dance hall in the small hall were closed and those there were cautioned not to go anywhere. Then the fire was extinguished.

The highest price paid was $25,500, given to the art firm of Scott & Fowles for Millet's "Going to Work," which Mr. Henry, who died last June, secured for $50,000 of the John T. Martin sale. He made more than six per cent on his investment.

C. K. G. Hillings, the auctioneer, paid $25,000 for Daubigny's "La Sauterie," a second prize in this city. He secured Troyon's "La Charette de Poin," for $25,000, and a "L'air de la Vierge," for $25,000, and the same picture "Le Vieux de l'Église," for $22,000.

FEDERAL TAX ON EXCHANGES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—A federal tax on the transactions carried on by the exchanges of the country is expected by the late Knox Smith, Commissioner of the Securities, as offering a more complete constitutional and administrative basis of regulation. But it is not admitted that he is at a loss to determine exactly how to estimate the gain and relate the good.

Information requested by the President as to transactions on exchange and as to certain future contracts in foreign markets, but for Mr. Smith's report.

The Commissioner holds that "and extended delivery" transactions are "unregulated" and "unregulated" and they "should" be regulated. The more and more "unregulated" transactions are "unregulated" and "unregulated" and they "should" be regulated. The more and more "unregulated" transactions are "unregulated" and "unregulated" and they "should" be regulated.

DECLARES MRS. ROWE JEALOUS

Arthur Keach, clerk in a Boston bank, has come to the defense of his sister, Helen, of Somerville, who has been named in a case bill for divorce filed by Mrs. Dorothy E. Rowe in Lowell, against her husband, Ellen J. Rowe of the firm of Rowe & Stern, which she managed the Boston Food Fair for the past few years.

Keach declares that Mrs. Rowe's charges are treated by ignorance and are without foundation. Mr. Keach said that although he sister had worked as stenographer for Rowe when the Food Fair was held there a year ago last Fall, she had left his employer as soon as the fair closed.

"He wanted my sister to go to Providence as his stenographer" and Keach, who the same week after closing here, but she declined, not wishing to travel abroad.

"My sister did not leave Mr. Rowe and Mrs. Rowe's charges were evidently supplied by gossip. There was no ground whatever for an accusation."
